Subject: This is how I get my competitors to promote me...

NAME,

This may sound hard to believe but I've built my business by getting my top "competitors" to send me their best clients.

In fact, these competitors have sent me thousands of subscribers (over 5,000 just in the last couple of months) and made me a small fortune.

More importantly, they have helped me get more visible, make a massive impact in the world and reach people who truly need my help!

Sound too good to be true?

Subject: Best places to find JV partners in your niche

NAME,

Just over two years ago I was looking to publish my second book and I was looking for Joint Venture(JV) partners to help me promote it.

That's when I came across Rich German and Milana Leshinsky, and the community they created - JV Insider Circle (JVIC).

After I joined JVIC, amazing things started to happen... I instantly found over 20 people who were not just interested, but eager to help me promote my book, and it became an instant Amazon #1 bestseller.

Not only that, but my list grew from about 100 people to over 900 in a matter of days.

And that was just the beginning...

I used information that Rich and Milana provided to recruit dozens of JV partners to promote my first program.

They even showed me how to approach JV partners with HUGE lists and get them interested in promoting my program (but that's a topic for another email).

So the question is...

Would you like to know where YOU can find people who are open to Joint Venturing and promoting your products and services?

The answer is below...

FREE: Discover the best places to find JV partners who are ready, willing and excited to promote you!

To Your Success,

Alina Vincent

P.S. Potential JV partners can be found everywhere, you just need to know where to look and how to tell if they are open to promote you.

Subject: How I went from 100 people on my list to over 13,000

NAME,

Two years ago I had just 100 people on my list, no coaching clients, no affiliates, and no programs...

No one knew about me and no one wanted to promote me...

And then I joined JV Insider Circle.

I learned about the power of Joint Ventures, and how to find AND approach any potential JV partner - whether they had a small or a BIG list.

And things changed...

I now have over 13,000 people on my list, I have a ton of affiliate partners, half a dozen of great programs and BIG name partners promoting me (some of them have lists of over 100,000 people).

All of this happened in just 2 years....

Join me on BLAB today to find out the exact steps I took.

And I have a special surprise for you.

Rich German, one of the co-founders of the JV Insider Circle, is joining me on the BLAB to share with you how to grow your business with joint ventures!

Join us to learn how to get TOP partners to promote you.

To Your Success,

Alina Vincent

Subject: How I got 3 new clients last week without lifting a finger....

NAME,

Last week I got 3 brand new clients... and I didn't have to do a thing.

I never talked to them before.

I didn't have discovery sessions with them.

I didn't do a launch, spend money on Facebook Ads, teach a webinar or even send them an email.

In fact, they were not even on my list.

And yet - each of them signed up for my program and paid me $997.

I added $2991 to my bank account... without lifting a finger.

How is this possible?!?

It's easy - I have JV partners that promote me. They recommend my programs. They constantly send me clients. And they do all of the selling.

Here are the 5 steps I followed to get others to send me clients

To Your Success,

Alina Vincent
